Case - Timothy N. Pfeiffer,
Subject - Homicide, New Brunswick, N.J.,
Operative - 124.

124/Gibson

Nellie Gibson or Easton, or in fact any of the names mentioned at the beginning of this report. Operative showed the Chief of Police and the Lieutenant in Charge, the two letters in question. Neither the Chief of Police or the Lieutenant in Charge could give Operative any assistance in the matter, as they were not aware of anyone by the name of Nellie Gibson or Easton living in Middletown, N.Y. The Chief of Police telephoned to the State Hospital on Monhagen Ave., Middletown, N.Y., Telephone - Middletown 12, and requested them to search their records for any inmate by the name of Nellie Easton or Nellie Gibson. After an interval of time, the State Hospital called Police Headquarters on the telephone and advised the Chief of Police that they did not have anyone there under the name of Nellie Gibson or Nellie Easton. The Chief of Police then got in touch with General Delivery, at the Post Office, and made inquiry for any record they might have in connection with Nellie Gibson or Nellie Easton. The reply from the General Delivery at the Post Office, did not show any results.

Operative upon leaving the Police Station, telephoned to Mr. DeM. advising him of the results of the above investigation, and Operative was instructed by Mr. DeM. to discontinue and return to New York City.

In compliance with the above instructions, Operative proceeded to the railroad station and boarded the 7.28 p.m. train for New York City, and upon arrival at New York City, discontinued.
